

FIRST GUN OF A BIG STRIKE.

DAVID HIRSCH'S CIGAR-MAKERS OPEN THE BATTLE TO-DAY.

They Quit Work in a Body to Protest Against the Reduction of Wages and the Return to the Tenement-House System—There May be 2,000 Men Out by Monday—Thurber, Whyland & Co. to be Rejected.

The International Union cigar-makers fired the first gun this morning against a reduction of wages by striking in the manufactory of David Hirsch, in Forty-first street, between Second and Third avenues, twenty-seven hands going out.

Mr. Hirsch is a partner in the Manufacturers' Association. He has been favorably known as a fair man towards his hands.

In accordance with the general understanding among the manufacturers he gave notice of a reduction of $1 per 1,000 for the making of cigars of all grades in his manufactory.

His employees thought it unnecessary and unfair and made application to the International Union for leave to strike.

Word was sent that the international local unions in the United States and Canada had approved of it, and at the joint meeting of the executive boards of unions Nos. 10, 18, 20, 41 and 44 of cigar-makers, and Unions Nos. 213, 251 and 264, of cigar packers, last night, the report was received and the employees of David Hirsch acted upon it.

In the factory of Thoms & Spies trouble is expected to-day because the firm put seven girls at work on what is known as the "cheap floor," where the cheaper grades of cigars are made.

The men who are employed in this factory are opposed to this course, and a strike is likely to ensue.

Kerbs & Spies were the first firm to announce that it was their intention to return to the tenement-house system.

Notices of a reduction of wages have been posted thus far as follows:

Brown's, in Mulden alley, reduction of 50 cents to $1.00 per 1,000.

Winters & Schiffer, Seventh street and First avenue, reduction of 10¢ to 15¢ and a return to the tenement-house system.

Jacoby & Bookman, Thirty-eighth street and First avenue, reduction of 10¢ to 15¢ and a return to the tenement-house system.

Howards, regular factory in East Ninth street, reduction of 10¢ to 15¢.

A. C. & Co., regular factory, East Ninth street and Third avenue, a reduction of 10¢ to 15¢.

At the headquarters of the International, in East Eighth street, it was reported that the joint Executive board of women's societies, last night, adopted a resolution that no word may be received from President Thurber of the International Union, that other applications to strike have not been upon.

Thurber, Whyland & Co., who have been in conference with the women's societies, are reported to have purchased 250,000 from Monelli, a tenement house manufacturer, at Avenue D and Tenth street, laboring under the impression that they would be boycotted both firms.

Secretary Buchner, of Union 144, received word yesterday that Judge Sedgwick of the Superior Court, on Monday, had affirmed the decision of Judge Dugan and Monelli for using counterfeit labels of the International Union.

More strikes are likely to occur to-morrow, and by Monday nearly two thousand hands may be out.

The manufacturers have begun a concerted movement for a reduction of prices and some have also announced their intention of returning to the tenement-house system because of their alleged inability to compete with outside manufacturers, notably those at Binghamton.

Searching for Hamilton's Murderer.

LOUIS BRANCH, Jan. 6.—The authorities have not yet succeeded in running down the murderer or murderers of the old man Robert Hamilton. The several colored persons under arrest are believed by many to have had a hand in the brutal crime, but whether they know something about the murder is what puzzles the authorities. Besides Chief of Police Lloyd and Coroner Vandever a number of city detectives are at work on the case.

The detectives are still searching pawnshops in different cities for the murdered man's gold watch. Peter Domling, the negro for whom the officers have been looking for the past forty-eight hours and who is believed by many to be the murderer of Hamilton, is thought to be hiding in a settlement inhabited by colored people near Philadelphia.

Mr. P. T. Wall's Moral Sense Shocked.

A lawyer, once well known in the courts of San Francisco and now a familiar figure in New York barrooms, sided up to Mr. P. T. Wall in the Hoffman House this morning and, showing a dime, asked the loan of a sanitary direction, so that he might make a purchase in the Hoffman's art gallery.

Mr. Wall drew himself together, advanced his right arm, and said: "I am surprised. Yes, sir, surprised that you should have asked from me, the President of a temperance society and a Director of the Girls' Peace Society, for a sanitary direction. No, sir, I say, the wherewithal to buy your toilet No. 10, no, sir, I say, sir!" And then lowered his voice to a sotto voce and said: "I am surprised, sir, that you should have asked from me, the President of a temperance society and a Director of the Girls' Peace Society, for a sanitary direction. No, sir, I say, sir!"

Front appeared, and the San Francisco pleader was so much to be seen.

NEWSBOYS HAVE SOME FUN.

Candy and a Concert Provided by a Party From Brooklyn.

Last night was a gala night at the newsboys' lodging house. There was a concert, there was no school, which institution is considered a bore by many of the urchins, there was plenty of candy and the boys had a general good time.

Concerts and candy are things that the lively newsboys about the city seldom have a chance of enjoying. It was about a month since the youngsters had been so entertained, and when orders were given yesterday to report in the school-room with clean faces every lad threw up his hat.

To Miss Glenn Knight, of Brooklyn, the evening's fun was in a measure due; but the half-score of ladies and gentlemen who accompanied her and their aid toward giving the little fellows a good time.

George J. Bryan took charge of matters and introduced each artist. Then, when the musical entertainments were finished, he proposed to make a speech. He wanted the boys' opinion.

"Which would you rather have," he asked, "a speech from me, or candy?" "Candy," the answer from hundreds of throats—"Candy."

Then a few repeated, but too late, and the candy was distributed.

Afterwards a tour of inspection of the building was made, under the guidance of Supt. R. Heigand and Mrs. Heigand, and then the boys went to bed and the visitors went home to Brooklyn.

These were among the entertainers: Miss T. May Taylor, Miss Austria Taylor, Miss Minnie A. Reid, John M. Taylor, George B. Squires, Miss Ida T. Aris, Miss Lida Johnson, Miss Grace Knight, Harry Knight and John Taylor.

Henry Knight, at whose suggestion the concert was given, was once a poor boy, and in later years made frequent visits to the school. Now he is one of Brooklyn's wealthiest citizens, a successful publisher, and still takes an interest in the many little fellows who make the lodging-house their home.

AFTER THE THEATRE.

A Presentation to Stage Manager McCarty, of Niblo's, Followed by a Jolly Supper.

There was a jolly after-theatre party at the House of Lords, a well-known resort a stone's throw from Niblo's, the other night, and before the entertainment ended one gentleman had been thoroughly canded.

L. J. McCarty, is the popular young stage manager of the Boston Theatre, and superintending the presentation of "A Run of Luck" in the Hub. When the play was brought to New York Mr. McCarty came along to look after the stage work at Niblo's.

At the close of the performance on Wednesday night the young manager was called before the board of directors and presented by Mechanic J. H. Cunningham, of Niblo's, with a gold-headed cane. The stick bears the inscription: "Presented to L. J. McCarty by the employees of Niblo's."

Mr. McCarty of course was surprised, but after he read the engraving he said some pretty things about the men and the expression of their good will to him, and then every one of the twenty-odd employees presented him with a gold-headed cane.

Dan Maginnis, "Handsome Dan," as his Boston friends call him, was there and sang "The Christening," "The Wedding" and "The Courtship," all his own work, and for an encore he sang "The Courtship" again, which only those who have heard can appreciate.

Mr. Cunningham contributed his share to the good time. Policemen Dan Haggerty and Hugh Moran, of the Broadway police squad, came in after getting off duty and sang funny songs that sent the boys into roars of laughter.

W. J. Wheeler and Prof. Edwards, who some say is the wizard of the nineteenth century, made fun for everybody and the latter's mesmerism scene was simply immense.

Mr. Finley, who is one of the most popular boys in the theatre, was also present and was to be joyful, and then, after discussing an elaborate spread, the boys went home.

BLOCKED IN PARK ROV.

A Broken Truck Caused Car-Drivers to Use Language of Various Kinds.

A blockade in Park row directly in front of the south roadway of the bridge made things lively for half an hour this morning. A big truck, with a heavy load of sacks of meal, broke down and could not be judged. All the East Broadway and Avenue B cars had to be run off the track to get around the obstruction. This caused the drivers to indulge in such choice and assorted language as would have driven the color from Anthony Comstock's cheeks. Two empty drays were pressed into service, and the meal sacks were carried away soon after the offending truck was removed, and the policemen, who a few minutes before had been in the picture of activity, sank back into their customary repose.

JECKEY RICHARDSON'S PROFITABLE RIDE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—Fred Richardson, a well-known jockey, has gone to England to claim a large fortune left in London by an aunt named Mrs. Jones, who recently died in an insane asylum near London.

The estate is now in possession of his sister, who is said to be worth an asylum four years since while sane.

Richardson's sister wrote to an old school friend, the writer, and the latter accidentally came into the hands of the girl's brother in the office, and was forwarded to the mother of Richardson, who was then again to Michael Dolan, a steam-fitter, and who now keeps a little candy store here. The fortune is said to amount to nearly a million.

Slattery Won on a Feat.

DENVER, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Pat Slattery, of Dunkir, and W. A. Layton, of Meadville, met here last night in a prize-fight with gloves, according to the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, and was victorious by a knockout. The fight was for a stake of $100 and gate money. Twenty-one rounds were fought, lasting eighty-three minutes. At the end of the twenty-first round the fight was decided in favor of Layton. Both men received terrible punishment. Slattery's face was knocked out of shape and Layton was hurt in the chest and body. About fifty persons witnessed the mill.
